WEYLER A TRAITOR.

He May Turn Havana Over to the Insurgents.

POSITIVELY REFUSES TO RETIRE.

Too Long a Ruler to Submit to the Dictates of the Minister of War - The Situation Critical and Startling Developments May Be Looked For Within the Next Few Days.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to The Herald from Havana says: In spite of all his protests to the contrary General Weyler, when it comes to the actual test of resigning his command, exhibited great reluctance. He has refused to give over authority as captain general to his duly appointed successor, although peremptorily ordered to do so by Spain's minister of war.

The situation is critical. Senor Sagasta can not, it is believed, permit his ministry to be openly defied by General Weyler and yet he may have to resort to extreme measures to remove the captain general. Over and over again, Captain General Weyler has affirmed he would do nothing to embarrass his country, but actions speak louder than words.

Castellanos arrived in the capital late Monday night. He had been appointed by Spain's minister of war to replace General Weyler until General Blanco arrived in Cuba. Castellanos was in the field when the appointment came, but he at once started for the palace. In some unaccountable way a man-of-war sent to fetch him was retarded. Castellanos proceeded to the palace on Tuesday morning expecting to be sworn in as captain general. But it was very soon apparent that General Weyler did not intend that anything of the sort should happen. He made excuses and hesitated until Castellanos was provoked to cable the situation to Madrid. A reply came quickly. It was a peremptory order that General Weyler should vacate and that the newly appointed man should assume command at once.

But even then General Weyler did not obey. He told Castellanos that before he would hand over the office he must have a written statement from his successor to the effect that the four western provinces were pacified. Now Castellanos had been in the field and knew the truth and refused to sign any such document.

This happened Tuesday evening. General Weyler is still captain general and in effect defies any one to divest him of his authority. General Weyler's intimate friends assert that he will not relinquish command until a few hours before the time he has fixed to sail for Spain. The date of his departure is now fixed for Oct. 30. But it was once before fixed for the 20th. There is time for much to happen before General Blanco arrives.

General Weyler entertained the colonels of the volunteer force at a banquet in the palace on Monday night. It was a splendid affair and the wines were of the best. During the course of the evening General Weyler made a speech full of insinuations. General Weyler attempted to justify himself beforehand for anything he might do to prevent Spain's present ministry from carrying out what he thought was a policy that would bring disaster to his beloved country. There is little doubt that the volunteer force in Cuba is with General Weyler. He has looked after them well; he has uniformed and armed them well and they enjoy many privileges. They have a good deal to lose and nothing to gain if the Cubans are given a liberal voice in the government.

The volunteer force is composed chiefly of petty officeholders, clerks, laborers, waiters, porters, etc. It numbers in Havana alone more than 30,000 men, a well drilled and strong looking body of men. With them General Weyler is power.

In the meantime the rebels are ready and eager for the winter campaign. The movement westward is slow, but sure. It is a significant fact that General Gomez is not following his usual tactics. Heretofore his westward marches have been bold, swift dashes, with the advancing force split up into small bodies, but this time it is different. There is something solid about the very slowness of movement. It betokens heavy baggage trains; it means artillery; it means the laying of a permanent base of supplies; it means that the rebels are coming to stay. The vanguard of the invading army has been reported near Santa Clara city.

OPENED THE EYES OF SPAIN.

Authorities at Washington Not Surprised at Weyler's Actions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The news from Havana that Weyler is preparing to open the eyes of Spain and has refused to turn over his command to his appointed successor, Castellanos, only confirms the dispatches which were printed last week. It was stated then that the Cubans in Washington had intimated that General Weyler would refuse to obey the orders from Madrid, and that he was preparing to turn Havana over to the insurgents. His actions were then looked upon with suspicion by the Spanish authorities, and now the confirmatory dispatches both from Madrid and Havana fully justify all that was said at that time.

As yet the state department has not had any confirmatory dispatches from Havana, and while the officials do not talk of publication, they do not express any surprise at the developments. The officials do not expect any immediate trouble however. Secretary Sherman leaves next week for his home in Mansfield, O., and what is more significant, it is officially announced that Consul General Lee will not return to Havana until Dec. 5.

DE LOME CALLS ON SHERMAN. An Hour Spent in Earnest Conversation, but Its Import Not Made Public.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Senor Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish minister, was among Secretary Sherman's callers yesterday, it being diplomatic day, and spent almost an hour in earnest consultation with the secretary and with Assistant Secretary Adee, who was sent for by the secretary. The minister is stopping in the city only for a short time at present, owing to the fact that he is not able to obtain possession of the new quarters he has engaged for the legation until next December. He will make his home with his family in New York for the month of November, coming over to Washington once every week to transact the legation business. In December he expects to open the legation in its new home at the corner of Eighteenth street and Connecticut avenue.

So far as the officials at the state department know there is no prospect of a change in the ministry here, certainly not in the near future, or perhaps at all, the experience of Senor Dupuy de Lome making his services in Washington extremely necessary to the Spanish government in its transition stages.

IT MAY COME TOO LATE.

Spanish Cabinet Considering a Reply to Our Government.

MADRID, Oct. 22.—The queen regent presided over the cabinet council yesterday. Senor Sagasta, the premier, and Admiral Bermejo, minister of marine, both of whom were indisposed, were absent. Senor Gullon, the minister of foreign affairs, explained at length the present status of Spain's diplomatic relations with the United States, and declared the cabinet was entirely in accord as to the policy to be pursued.

General Correa, minister of war, said he was satisfied with the manner in which reinforcements were concentrating for Cuba. He declared that there were very few desertions.

At the meeting of the cabinet today, Senor Sagasta presiding, the ministers will consider the draft of the answer of Spain to the note of the United States on the subject of Cuba, delivered to the Spanish government by the United States minister, General Stewart L. Woodford, shortly after his arrival here. It is understood that the reply will contain a formal protest against filibustering.

El Herald says that Senor Gullon submitted to the premier yesterday his suggested draft of the reply to the note and that the premier approved it, but intimated that it should be withheld until after the arrival of Marshal Blanco at Havana.

Letting on to Be Doing Something.

HAVANA, Oct. 22.—A local guerrilla force at the Manuella farm, near Abreus, province of Matanzas, has been engaged with a band of 60 insurgents commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Yboni. The enemy, according to the official report, left two officers and two privates killed upon the field, and the troops captured eight privates and a quantity of arms and a number of dynamite shells.

ENDOWMENT RANK FUND.

Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Belonging to the Knights of Pythias Tied Up.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The fact that $200,000 of the widows' and orphans' fund of the Knights of Pythias is invested in a mortgage upon the lease of the Lexington hotel was touched upon in Judge Dunne's court in the argument being made as to the best way to protect the interests of all the creditors of the hotel company.

The Knights of Pythias, in connection with their secret order, have an insurance organization known as the endowment rank. Jan. 1 the surplus funds in the treasury of this rank were said to be between $400,000 and $500,000, partially in cash and partially in gilt-edged securities. From this fund the $200,000 given to the Lexington hotel interests is said to have come. At the best it is not expected that the money can be recovered from the hotel property for years.

John A. Hinsey represents the officers of the order in the receivership proceedings. Judge Dunne said last evening that he would appoint two receivers for the hotel.

BANK ROBBED.

Safe Dynamited and Considerable Booty Carried Off.

ELKHART, Ind., Oct. 22.—A daring and successful robbery was committed at Wakarusa, a small town eight miles south of here, in the county, during the night. The safe of the Exchange bank was blown open and a considerable amount of money, mostly in gold and silver, was carried away.

Dynamite was used in effecting an entrance. The robbers were discovered about 8 o'clock, while still at work, and a lively chase ensued. They had stolen a rig, however, into which they sprang with their booty and made their escape. They drove north toward this city, where all trace was lost. The rig was found in the outskirts at daylight. The amount of money stolen is not known.

A telegram states that an old man living over the bank was aroused by their operations, but upon venturing out he was confronted by a guard armed with two revolvers, who forced him to remain quiet until the thieves had completed their work.

LUETGERT TRIAL ENDS

The Jury Fails to Agree and Is Discharged.

DEADLOCKED FOR 38 HOURS.

Nine of the Jury Favored a Verdict of Guilty, but the Other Three Held Otherwise - The Prisoner's Attorneys Will Apply For Him to Be Let Out on Bond. Another Trial Promised.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Adolph Luetgert, accused of the most remarkable crime of the century, will have another chance to prove that he did not murder his wife and disintegrate her corpse in a vat full of deadly potash solution.

The jury, after being out a few minutes over 66 hours, was discharged at 11 a. m. yesterday by Judge L. Tuthill after it had officially informed him for the second time that it could never agree.

It is understood that the jury on its last ballot voted as follows:

For conviction—Shaw, Fowler, Franzen, Bibby, Mahoney, Behmiller, Heichhold, Hosmer and Eoyd.

For acquittal—Harley, Holabird and Barber.

The beginning of the end of the legal battle over the fate of Luetgert came a few minutes before 10 o'clock. At that time Judge Tuthill reached the criminal court building. He immediately sent for State's Attorney Deneen, for Attorney Vincent, for Attorney Phalen and for Luetgert, the prisoner.

After a few minutes' talk the court sent for Foreman Heichhold. He was interrogated as to the possibility of the jury arriving at a verdict. He replied that he saw no chance of such an outcome. The further information was vouchsafed that the jury stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal and also that this had been the status of affairs for the last 38 hours.

Upon this the court sent for the rest of the jurors, and the same questions were put to them and like answers returned. Thereupon the formal discharge of the jury took place, and the big crowd in the courtroom—for the public had been admitted—gave a sigh of relief as they went away, and Luetgert was returned to his cell.

The disagreement of the jury means a new trial should the state feel that it can convict Luetgert of the alleged murder of his wife.

It is a foregone conclusion that Luetgert's attorneys will appear before Judge Tuthill and ask that their client be admitted to bail. In deciding the question the court's decision will doubtless be largely influenced by the opinion of the state's attorney as to the advisability of granting the request.

If Luetgert should be refused bail the statutes provide that his incarceration for a period of four consecutive months will act as a release, and the prisoner must be discharged from custody.

Luetgert is pleased at the result. So is his lawyer, Phalen, and his son, Arnold, and his partner, Charles. Ex-Judge Vincent says he is disappointed. "Yes, sir, we will try him again," said State's Attorney Deneen, when asked as to the probability of Luetgert being brought before the court a second time.

"When we will get at it, however, is something I can not tell you now. We have had nine weeks of this and I must have a couple weeks' rest. After that we will look the ground over and get our evidence together. The case stands now with us as though there had never been a trial. The second trial has no bearing whatever on the case just closed."

The trial of the Luetgert case consumed nine weeks, and were it possible to give an itemized account of the expense to the state and the defendant, the figures would scarcely be credited. To a large extent the matter of cost can only be estimated. Those who are familiar with the expenses attached to the trial of cases have estimated the cost to the state all the way from $25,000 to $50,000. Probably the truth lies in a medium between these figures.

To begin with, the state procured an extra appropriation of $3,500 from the county board for the purposes of the prosecution. This was gone for actual daily running expenses before the trial had proceeded three weeks. The state then succeeded in getting another appropriation of $2,500. This money was obtained solely for the purpose of paying expert witnesses and to defray the expenses of the police investigation, and it was all expended before the end of the trial.

It is quite probable that some prosecutions for perjury will result from the Luetgert case. It is given on first class authority that the testimony of two of the principal witnesses for the defense will be laid before the grand jury for an investigation. It may be that more than two people will be included in the list that will be carried to the grand jury, but it is practically settled that indictments will be asked for against two, probably before the Luetgert case can be reached for the trial again. The two witnesses against whom it is said indictments will be asked are William Charles, Luetgert's business partner, and Mary Siemmering, the domestic in the Luetgert household.

Luetgert refused to be interviewed, but made the following statement to the public late last night:

"The result of my trial, ending today, is a victory for me because of the disagreement of the jury, but I am very much disappointed and very much surprised that the jury did not bring in a verdict of not guilty."

"I did not kill my wife and do not know where she is, but I am sure that it is only a question of time until she

"I did not go upon the witness stand because my lawyer, Judge Vincent, was bitterly opposed to my doing so, and because he advised me it was not necessary."

"I am grateful for the tremendous change in public sentiment in my favor, and time will demonstrate that I am not only an innocent but a very grievously wronged man."

THOUSANDS OF LIVES LOST.

The Elements Take a Hand in the Philippine Rebellion.

MADRID, Oct. 22.—A dispatch received here from Leyte, one of the Philippine islands, says that place has been almost devastated by a cyclone, that many persons have been killed and that damage to property is incalculable. The cyclone, it is further announced, destroyed the towns of Tagloban and Hernani on the island of Leyte, as well as several villages. It is estimated that 400 persons lost their lives through the disaster.

Later advices from Manila say the cyclone occurred on Oct. 12 and they add that Carigara and Burgo, on the eastern coast of Leyte, have been wiped out and that an immense wave swept inland, engulfing villages. Several thousand natives perished at Tagloban. The cyclone also swept the island of Samar. The full extent of the catastrophe is not yet known.

The town of Leyte, however, sustained but little damage, contrary to the first reports received.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

While Using Sulphur to Exterminate Lice Her Clothes Took Fire.

PIERCETON, Ind., Oct. 22.—Mrs. William Miller, who was a former resident of this place, but who now lives six miles northeast of here, met with death yesterday while burning sulphur in a chicken house in order to exterminate lice.

Her garments became ignited, and before aid could reach her she was so badly burned that death resulted in 15 minutes after she was found. Her husband owned a livery stable here until last spring, when he moved to a large farm, where he now lives. Mrs. Miller was 30 years old. She leaves four small children.

Oil Tanks Exploded.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Oct. 22.—Three oil tanks on flat cars on a Monon train exploded at 2 o'clock yesterday morning as the train was nearing this city. The shock was terrific and shattered window panes and aroused the citizens, who thought an earthquake had occurred. Four other cars, loaded with merchandise were also destroyed by fire, and the track was so badly damaged that traffic was delayed for several hours. The train crew escaped injury. The loss to the Monon company is about $12,000.

Result of a County Seat Election.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Oct. 22.—The canvassing board has completed the count in the special county seat election. The official figures give Seymour 3,717, Brownstown 2,792. Seymour lacks 188 of having the required 60 per cent of the vote cast. The vote in this township stood 2,222 to 57 for relocation. Seymour is defeated, but not dismayed, and will probably petition for another election at the next term of the commissioners' court.

SNAKES LET LOOSE.

Four Hundred Reptiles at Large in a Crowd.

SEVERAL PEOPLE WERE BITTEN.

Black Diamond Rattlesnakes From Five to Eleven Feet in Length Trampled Upon by the Crowd—Prominent Farmer Mysteriously Missing—Man Hurt in Machinery—Other Ohio State News.

HOLGATE, O., Oct. 22.—This city was thrown into a wild state of excitement last night and several people may lose their lives as a result. A museum on a car was being exhibited here which had on exhibition, among other things, a large glass and wire cage, containing over 400 poisonous and venomous snakes of different varieties.

During the evening men, women and children gathered in and around the car in great numbers. Finally the crowd became so great that the glass case containing the snakes was crushed and the entire den of reptiles were let loose in the crowd, creating the wildest panic.

In the collection of reptiles was a number of black diamond rattlesnakes, measuring from 5 to 11 feet long. They were stepped upon by the crowd, and several persons were bitten. All the doctors in town were summoned to give medical aid.

Farmer Mysteriously Disappears.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Oct. 22.—G. M. Dawson, a prominent farmer of Madison township, this county, mysteriously disappeared on the evening of the 13th. He started to this city, as has been his custom for years, with a load of marketing. Nothing has been heard of him or his team since. It is safe to say that he never reached the city. No reason can be given for his strange disappearance. He is a well-to-do farmer with large family and all are much concerned as to his whereabouts.

Crushed in Machinery.

FAITH, O., Oct. 22.—While engaged in moving some machinery near here O. A. Ush of Rising Sun, superintendent of the Modern Oil company, got caught in some way and received injuries which will probably prove fatal. INDICATIONS.—Generally fair weather;
 light westerly winds.

The treasury expenditures Wednesday exceeded the receipts by over $500,000,
 making the deficit nearly $36,000,000.

Down in Marion County the Republicans didn't even make any nominations,
 as they were in such hopeless minority.
 This is the fix they were in here until some Democrats saw fit to dump the county into their laps.

A MAN who has been honored by Democrats with office and then refuses to support the party nominees, may imagine himself a tremendous character, but he appears a mighty small affair to men who lay claim to honesty, gratitude and consistency.

In 1893 there were both county and city elections. This required a double lot of ballots—22 books for the county and 6 books for the city, or 28 books in all.—
 Public Ledger.

Again, Br'er Davis is "off." Separate ballots were not printed for city and county in 1893. The names of all candidates, both city and county, went on the same ballot, and only 22 books were required, just as in 1894. Keep on Br'er
 Davis, you'll get right after awhile.

THE Ledger 'fesses up that it made an error of 2 inches in the necessary width of the ballot of 1894—it should have been 10 inches wide. Any width above that is the work of a printer who is not a printer—the latter would have placed the "stub" at the top of the ballot, both for convenience of the Election Clerk
 and for economic reasons—Public Ledger.

Br'er Davis should get a copy of the election law and post himself before he writes any more about official ballots.
 He confesses he "made an error of 2
 inches in the necessary width of the ballot," and then he again shows his ignorance of the law by saying:

Any width above that was the work of a printer who is not a printer—the latter would have placed the "stub" at the top of the ballot.

Section 16 of the election law on the subject of ballots, says: "They shall be printed on the same leaf with a double stub,
 and separated therefrom by a perforated line, and shall be bound, with stubs attached thereto." What Br'er Davis doesn't know about the official ballots is a whole heap.

WATTERSON GIVES UP.

The Courier-Journal Editor Says the Democrats Will Carry Kentucky.

BENTON HARBOR, MICH., Oct. 21.—Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courtier-Journal, who is here, predicts that the Democrats will carry Kentucky at the coming election, and that the Tammany candidate will win in New York,
 with Tracy second.

DR. JAMES TAYLOR, who is sick at Rectorville, was no better Thursday.

E. DAUM, ATTORNEY.

The Augusta Chronicle Doubts Whether He Could Draw An Indictment For
 the Most Trivial Offense.

[Augusta Chronicle.]

E. Daum, candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, in resisting the payment of notes given on a steam threshing machine, had the executrix swear to the following:

" Oftentimes while cutting in tall grain the
 separator got wrapped around the cylinder,
 causing great damage by which we were further damaged in the sum of $250."

Can the public afford to vote for so ignorant a person to represent them in a position so important as that of Commonwealth's Attorney? Could he draw up an indictment for the most trivial offense? His pleadings filed in court are the laughing stock of the youngest attorney at the bar. Can you afford to vote for him?

Through the columns of the Chronicle
 there has been a constant effort on the part of its management to successfully warn taxpayers of Bracken to be on their guard in selecting men to manage her affairs. The assertion has been made time and again that Ed. Daum is not a fit man to be placed in office. That this is not made from any ulterior motive, we give below his action in a suit in which every taxpayer in the county is interested.

When the county got into trouble with Sheriff Sheehy, and it became necessary to bring suit for an accounting the Fiscal Court showed its contempt for his ability
 as a lawyer by making an order empowering him to employ an attorney competent to bring the suit. He approached attorney John B. Clarke with the proposition that he assist, with the understanding that he charge the Magistrates $1,500 for his services and he would not oppose the bill when it came before the Fiscal Court. For this service Mr. Clark was to give Daum $500 on the quiet. Mr. Clark very properly told him that he had missed his man and that he would not soil his hands with any such actions. He then applied to Hon. Wm. Goebel with the same result.
 The Sheriff's account was finally "compromised" at a loss of $16,000 of the hard earned money of the taxpayers of this county.

HUNTER ON A STILL HUNT.

The Willy Gum-Shoe Statesman Wants To Succeed Senator Lindsay.

FRANKFORT, KY., Oct. 20.—It has just come to the knowledge of the Democratic workers that the Republicans are making a still hunt in all the districts that elect a State Senator this year. Dr. Hunter keeps his movements a secret as far as possible, but wherever he has been heard of this fall it has been in some Senatorial district that he regards as doubtful. His object is plain.

The nineteen Senators elected this fall hold on for four years, and during the last half of their terms will vote for a successor to Senator Lindsay. Hunter is wasting no time or money on members of the House of Representatives. They are elected for two years only, and will have no voice in naming a Senator unless they are elected to a second term in 1899.

There are eight Democrats and nine Republicans of the present hold-over Senators; one Democrat, Taylor, of Henderson, and one Republican, James,
 of Muhlenburg, having resigned. These two resignations will make it necessary to elect 21 Senators in November, instead of 19, as usual. With eight to start with it will be seen that the Democrats must elect 12 new Senators out of the 21, in order to control the Senate, and, as one of the eight is a Gold Democrat (Smith, of Henry), it will be necessary to elect 13.

Debt Wiped Out.

NASHVILLE, TENN., October 20.—For years past a heavy debt has hung over the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with headquarters in this city. About two years ago Rev. Dr. Henry C. Morrison, one of the Missionary Secretaries, inaugurated a movement to pay off this debt, and today he had the satisfaction of announcing that subscriptions have been received to the amount of $150,000, which will wipe out every cent of the debt.

The formal announcement of City Clerk Charles E. Brosee appears elsewhere to-day. He is one of Maysville's most faithful officials, having discharged his duties with credit to himself and to the city. The creditable record he has made is a guarantee of faithful and efficient service in the future, and he respectfully asks your support.

REV. U. W. DARLINGTON will preach at the Methodist Episcopal Church, South,
 in Washington Sunday morning at 11

 will be held at 7 o'clock, conducted by the Young Men's Christian Association.

REV. S. D. DUTCHER returned last night from Nicholasville, where he has been assisting Rev. Graham Frank in a protracted meeting. There were thirty-four additions to the church, and the meeting was a most gratifying success in every respect.

YOUR eyes need toning up just as well as your system. Don't think because you have never had sore eyes you've no use for Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. It is cooling, healing and strengthening. It will clear your sight. For sale at Chenoed by other musical talent, will give an entertainment in Augusta on Saturday evening, November 6th. The entertainment will consist of mandolin, guitar and vocal music, and little Edith Means will entertain the audience with a Spanish dance.

THIRTY-FIVE years ago last Sunday—
 that is to say October 17, 1862—a six-inch snow fell throughout Kentucky. Major Jerry Powell, who has a faculty for remembering such things, tells the Richmond Register that it had been unusually dry all the summer and the snow broke up the drouth.

THE late Hon. Frank Chambers, one of the finest lawyers in Kentucky, and who also stood at the top at the Cincinnati bar, was instrumental in keeping the county seat at Washington as long as he lived there and until his removal to the Queen City. An old resident was telling a correspondent a few days ago how Mr.
 Chambers always balked every move that was made towards removing the court house so long as his home was in Washington. When he removed to Cincinnati, of course, he lost interest in the case. He was one of the handsomest and most striking looking men we have ever seen."

ACCORDING to reports presented at the Indianapolis meeting this week, the Christian Church now has 1,051,079 communicants, and church property valued at over $16,000,000. Following are the gains for last year: Churches, 422; communicants, 47,407; in Bible schools, 627;
 scholars and teachers in Bible schools, 36,413; ministers, 420. The National Board of Education has arranged for a regular quarterly publication, to be called a "Bulletin of the Board of Education." The church now has nearly 8,000 Sunday schools in America, with 85,000 teachers and officers. These schools give one-third of the contributions to the foreign mission work. There are 3,987 Christian Endeavor Societies reported, showing a net gain of 333.

October Necessities!

CLOAKS.—Dollars do double duty in wrap-buying, thanks to the unseasonable weather. Coat-makers are frantic. It's either quick selling or worse. So right at the threshold of winter we have dozens of jaunty, stylish, well-tailored wraps to sell at prices like these: $4.00 Wraps at $2.50; $5.00 Wraps at $3.50; $7.50 Wraps at $5.00; $10.00 Wraps at $7.75. Don't misread us—not every garment here is at reduced price, but dozens are makers' losses of profits and often a large slice from prime cost. Coat bargains at the unusual end of the season. Quality, style and price have every rightness represented.

APRONS.—Did you buy of the lot advertised last week? They sold in a day but we have other values just as good. Indian-Linen Aprons, with big, generous hem, 25c. Some Aprons are plain, others tucked; all are large enough to offer real dress protection, pretty enough to keep on when you have a morning caller, strong enough to stand lots of hard usage.

NEW COMERS.—Yard-square Table Covers in cloth-of-gold, prettily fringed, ten different colors, 25c; appliqued demin covers, same size, fringed, 25c. Either will add a touch of daintiness to any room. Bustles have returned to fashion—some are selling and some are not. We are selling ours because they are correct in style, light, graceful, comfortable. Made of best quality gray or black French hair cloth, 25c. Security Hose Suspenders, all colors; fancy silk Webbing, finished with satin bows, very pretty, 25c.

SATURDAY NIGHT.—Think of a pure Scotch Linen Towel, white, barred with red, prettily fringed, for 10c. Why that would hardly pay for the fringe and here you get the towel thrown in—all for 10c.

Griffith frequently had Henry Clay, John C. Breckinridge, Andrew Jackson and other noted Southerners for his passengers.

Griffith was noted for his remarkable strength. On one occasion when his stage overturned he righted it without assistance. He was a hotel keeper many years after the war.

A LOST POCKET BOOK.

It Caused a Lively Scene on a C. and O.
Train One Night This Week.

[Portsmouth Blade]

There was a great commotion on the midnight C. and O. train last night just this side of Maysville. A passenger went to the closet and while there dropped his pocket book off the train. He did not wait to arrange his toilet, but made a dash for the bell cord. His appearance created a stampede among the ladies, and his pull on the cord caused a quick stoppage of the train.

The train crew rushed in the car surrounded the excited passenger. He attempted to explain, but the conductor was mad and refused to listen to any explanation. He was seized and roughly put off the train, and the conductor gave the signal to go ahead. The passenger doubtless put in the balance of the night hunting for that lost pocket book.

Hon. John W. Alexander—Dear Sir: Hon. J. W. Bailey, of Texas, will address the citizens of Maysville on October 28th. Please make all necessary arrangements for his pleasure and comfort while the guest of your people. Yours truly
P. P. JOHNSTON, Chairman.

POLK MILLER, whose negro dialect stories and songs have been heard throughout the country with so much pleasure, has made a new departure. This season he is assisted by Oscar P. Sisson, the well known comedian, and little Esther Wallace, Mr. Sisson's niece and companion on the stage. Miss Wallace is pretty, graceful and sings delightfully. Mr. Sisson and Miss Wallace produce a clever musical-comedy sketch, as a curtain-raiser, and then Mr. Miller holds the boards with his wonderful delineation of dark humor and pathos. The third part of the performance is where Mr. Miller appears as "Uncle Daniel," in a character sketch, and gives a study of the old time negro dialect, color, costume and all. Mr. Sisson and Miss Wallace also have parts in this act that serve to show their particular talents to the best advantage. As a whole the entertainment is unique and has been meeting with crowded houses and most creditable comment wherever given. The Miller-Sisson-Wallace combination will appear at court house next Monday evening. Street cars at the postoffice after the entertainment.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly true and partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1088 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

POOR POTATOES.

The Crop of the United States For 1897 Is Nearly a Failure.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Not since 1892 has the potato crop of the United States proved so nearly a failure, says The American Agriculturist in its final report of the yield of 1897. Compared with the liberal crop of last year, there is an apparent falling off of nearly 30 per cent in tonnage and the quality of the whole is greatly deficient.
County and township returns from all the leading potato growing states to this weekly newspaper, show the yield of potatoes to be 174,000,000 bushels against 245,000,000 in 1896; 285,000,000 in 1895; 185,000,000 in 1894 and only 155,000,000 in the short crop of 1892. The average rate of yield per acre is placed at 64 bushels taking the country at large, against 86 bushels in 1896, 89 in 1895, and 62 in 1892.

The reasons for disaster to the potato crop of 1897 are about as varied as a multiplicity of causes could make them. Standing out with more prominence than any other two factors are blight and rot, as a result of extremes of weather conditions. While the yield in bushels is small, the quality is almost as deficient. This is true of most, but not all states. The crop is best in the northwest. Such portions of Canada as make a specialty of potatoes, notably Ontario and the Maritime provinces, show a general but not serious shortage.

SHOT BY HER LITTLE BROTHER.

Distressing Tragedy at the Hands of a Youthful Pistol User.

BUENA VISTA, Ky., Oct. 22.—A terrible tragedy occurred last evening at the home of Mitchell Parker, living on Sulphur creek, near this place.

His son and daughter had just come home from school, and the parents being away, the little boy, in coming home went straight to the mantelpiece and picking up his father's revolver pointed it at his sister and pulled the trigger. There was a loud report, and the little girl fell backward out of the door, a corpse, the bullet having gone through her head, killing her instantly. Her parents are almost distracted with grief, this being the third child they have lost this summer.

THE LATE JAMES GRAY.

A Tribute to a Worthy Christian Man, One of Fleming County's Respected Citizens.

Called to his rest, James Gray, aged sixty-three years, of Fleming County, passed from this busy, active life to the slumber of the just, Monday, October 18th, after an illness of ten days, being stricken with paralysis while on the highway returning to his home which he never again was to see.

Truly, "In the midst of life we are in death," for this man of God had not complained, was not enfeebled, nor had he any presentiment of the approach of death. His end was as his life had been, peaceful, quiet and calm.

For forty-four years a consistent and humble follower of the Saviour, his lamp was trimmed and ready, for his principle in life had been to watch—for ye know not the hour; it may be at evening, it may be at midnight or at the cock crowing or at such a time as ye think not; and in as much as the silver cord was broken so ruthlessly it is no wonder we find words cold and unsympathetic in expressing condolence and ameliorating the affliction which, in his sudden death, has fallen upon the devoted wife and children. But to these bereaved ones it is a blessed memory they possess in the rich heritage of a noble life so closely linked to theirs, for this husband, this father, was the soul of goodness.

All our praises of him are like streams "Drawn from a spring that still rise full and leave the part remaining greatest." Benevolent, kind and the soul of integrity, his friendship for his fellow-men was founded upon the second great commandment given him by his Saviour, while the beautiful side of his life shown resplendently around the hearthstone, there the ride of his humble service showed charmingly the source of earthly happiness, there the limitation of God broke effulgently; radiating and illuminating because the golden rule was the sum total of this subject's life. It is no wonder then that in the language of a sweet singer who had sounded the depths and shoals of grief lives we conclude this peroration to James Gray:

"So when a good man dies,
For years beyond his ken,
The light he leaves behind him lies
Upon the path of men."

To the broken hearted widow, and the eleven children who are called upon to mourn the love of a devoted father, we say place your trust in God. Through your tears look up and behold the beckoning hands awaiting you there where no shocks are felt, no sorrows known, even Heaven's blessed haven is now closer drawn to you.
One of the eleven children who survive is Mr. Lee B. Gray, Superintendent of the electric light plant in this city.
